Idyllwild Arts Student Values

Idyllwild Arts Academy students know who they are and what they stand for. They are young artists and scholars who strive for excellence and they stand for the following values which are expressed through their daily behavior:

Integrity – Keep your actions consistent with your words and ideals

Respect – Treat all with acceptance and tolerance, appreciate others and their work

Responsibility – Consider and accept the results of your actions, follow through on your commitments

Aspiration – Go beyond what limits personal growth and the growth of the community

Passion – Care about your art form and support yourself through the creative process

Imagination – Have the courage to look at existing objects with your own eye

Contribution to the Community – Be informed and get involved

Graduation Requirements

Because the Idyllwild Arts Academy encompasses grades 9-12 plus post-graduates, programs ranging from 1 to 4 years in length may be created. Each student's course of study is composed of a combination of the required arts and academic courses necessary to meet our graduation requirements. These required courses meet the University of California Admissions Standard.

Home Schooling Requirements

The Idyllwild Arts Academy recognizes a family's right to choose home schooling as an option for their children. In order to be considered for admission to the Arts Academy, students who are home schooled must participate in a state recognized home schooling program and submit the following materials in lieu of high school transcripts as well as have a parent answer the questions below:

- Documentation of compliance with a state accredited home schooling program.
- A comprehensive description of the home schooling curriculum, outlining coursework and books used
- Grades for each course taken with a description of grading standards
- SSAT testing results or those of another standardized test

Please answer the following questions: What factors played into your decision to home school your child? How do you feel your child will perform in an independent school environment both socially and academically?

Audition Requirements

All applicants must satisfy the following audition requirements according to his/her arts discipline. We highly encourage all students and their families to schedule an on-site visit after the application is submitted to become familiar with our campus and participate in a live audition/interview.

Creative Writing Program

The Creative Writing major at the Idyllwild Arts Academy is designed to encourage the creative powers of gifted young writers, teach writing skills and techniques, introduce the discipline of close reading and practical criticism, and to prepare students for college and the many paths a professional writing life may take. Students are expected to study literary history, think critically, and experience the process of literary creation and revision firsthand.

- Candidates for admission must submit a portfolio for evaluation that includes several representative writing samples of poetry, fiction, and nonfiction. The total submission should be at least fifteen pages total. Applicants are evaluated on overall academic achievement as well as their writing skills and experience. Due to the large amount of reading required, applicants should have a high level of reading comprehension.

Dance Program

The Dance major at the Idyllwild Arts Academy is designed to provide students with the technical and artistic versatility required to advance in the professional dance world. Ballet plays a crucial role in the education a Dance major receives with a focus on classical technique emphasizing healthy movement habits. Dancers are also required to take modern and jazz dance each year they are enrolled in the program. As a performance major, the dance department puts on two main stage dance productions as well as studio works throughout the year, including student choreography.

- Candidates for admission to the Dance major are encouraged to audition in person for members of the Dance faculty or during an audition tour. If a live audition is not possible, candidates must submit a standard format video recording containing the following audition requirements:

Exercises at the barre (10 minutes): Students should stand sideways in relationship to the camera. Females should not wear skirts. Pliés, Battements tendus, Battements dégagés, Ronds de jambe a terre, Battements fondus, Battement frappés, Ronds de jambe en l'air, Grands battements, Développés.

In the centre (5 minutes): Pirouettes en dehors and en dedans, Adagio with développés, a combination with chainés, a combination with small jumps and, if possible, beats, a combination with big jumps.

For females who have worked en pointe: Exercises performed at the barre and/or a center variation.

Jazz or Modern Combination (5 minutes): We are looking to see present technical level, body potential and movement quality/love of dance.

Interdisciplinary Arts Program

The Interdisciplinary Arts major (IAM) at the Idyllwild Arts Academy is designed to expose students to a wide variety of experience and training in all areas of the arts – writing, dance, film, music, theatre and visual art. Students' schedules are tailored to their individual interests, encompassing intensive training in at least two areas of the arts. Students enrolled in the IAM program also study the relationships among various art forms, as well as new traditions and movements in the arts. This exploration includes the cultural, social, political and philosophical connections to and between the arts with a goal of cultivating a community of thoughtful, creative and aware artists. Due to the scholarly nature of the IAM curriculum it is important that applicants maintain an overall GPA of 3.0 or above.

- Candidates for admission to the IAM must interview with the department chair and must submit two essays in addition to the required application essay. All applicants must also schedule an audition or submit a portfolio for review.

Essays: How will your education and development as an artist benefit by an interdisciplinary arts curriculum? Please describe your future as an interdisciplinary artist.

Candidates will be evaluated on their overall academic and artistic development.

Moving Pictures Program

More than any single art form, the motion picture is an amalgam of all the arts – which makes Idyllwild Arts a unique environment for the study of film. It is our philosophy that the basic, most important element of any film is the story; therefore, all Moving Pictures majors are required to take a screenwriting course every semester while enrolled at the Academy. In addition, students must also participate in workshops and master classes given by top professionals in areas such as producing, directing, screenwriting, production design, cinematography, editing, post-sound, film scoring, Panavision and Arriflex cameras, Steadicam, etc. Classes are also offered in Acting for the Camera and Directing.

- Candidates for the Moving Pictures major must interview with the department chair and submit two essays in addition to the required application essay.

Essays: What are the effects of film on today's society? What effects have video and multimedia had on film? The department chair may request additional supporting application materials.

Music Program

The Music department of the Idyllwild Arts Academy prepares talented musicians for successful professional music careers. The faculty auditions serious and talented young classical and jazz musicians from around the world and within the United States. Private instruction is offered by the finest teachers and performers in Southern California. Instrumentalists have the opportunity to participate in orchestra and small ensembles; pianists study piano literature, keyboard skills, accompanying and ensemble playing. Jazz students work on improvising and playing in combos while developing their own style. Guitarists can participate in classical and jazz ensembles. Singers study diction, ensemble singing, and the history of the art song and opera. All students meet and hear guest artists perform and participate in master classes throughout the year.

- Candidates for the Music major are encouraged to audition in person for members of the Music faculty during their campus visit. If a live audition is not possible, students must submit a standard, American format video recording (VHS or DVD) containing the following audition requirements:

Classical:

Piano: Three prepared pieces representing contrasting styles from the standard repertory. All works must be performed from memory.

Orchestral Instruments and Guitar: Three prepared pieces representing contrasting styles.

Voice: Two contrasting songs or arias from the classical repertoire. Both must be performed from memory. For on campus auditions, applicants should bring music for an accompanist that will be provided.

Jazz: Three prepared pieces from memory: a blues, a standard and a jazz standard. Students are asked to demonstrate his/or knowledge of scales, inversions and chords.

At the audition, we are interested in seeing the applicant's level of accomplishment and musical knowledge. Students will be asked to perform any technical studies they are studying, major and minor scales. All students are asked to sight-read and demonstrate their knowledge of music theory. In addition to the above skills, jazz students are asked to improvise.

Theatre Arts Program

The Theatre Arts major offers concentrated pre-professional training in theatre. Training is Stanislavsky based and incorporates self-use techniques to guide students toward greater self-awareness and knowledge of the potentials of their own resources. The program is geared toward the serious student of theatre and affords students the opportunity to experience disciplined training as exemplified in conservatory theatre training programs on the college level. Students are asked to declare an area of concentration in acting, musical theatre or theatrical design/technical theatre at the time of admission or in their junior year. The Theatre Arts curriculum includes classes in acting, mask characterization, Shakespeare, stage combat, stage movement, music fundamentals for musical theatre, acting for the camera, improvisation, scenery and costume design, stage management, musical theatre repertory, voice and diction, lighting and sound fundamentals, class voice and drafting for the theatre.

- It is highly recommended and preferred that candidates for the Theatre Arts major audition in person for members of the Theatre faculty during their campus visit. *If a live audition is not possible, students must submit a standard, American format video recording (VHS or DVD) containing the following audition requirements:

Acting or Musical Theatre: Two prepared monologues from memory of no more than two minutes each. One must be a Shakespearean verse monologue and one must be a monologue from a contemporary play written after 1900. Applicants must also sing sixteen bars of a song a capella.

Theatrical Design/Technical Theatre: All students must interview with the design faculty and/or submit a portfolio for review.

Please note that students may be asked for a phone interview and/or a live audition may be required by the faculty based on the videotaped audition.*

Visual Art Program

The Visual Art major at the Idyllwild Arts Academy emphasizes the practice of studio art by helping students develop a sensibility and commitment to the hands-on, experiential process of art making. Students are exposed to a variety of ideas, methods and materials to promote an expansion of their visual literacy. Students are also asked to enter into a critical and analytical investigation of the meaning and practice of studio art. All courses supplement studio practice with historical, cultural and philosophical backgrounds of various periods and styles. The department also works to have students understand that art is a way to think critically and creatively about the world in which they live.

• Candidates must submit a portfolio of a representative number of works (approximately 10-20 pieces) including a description of the type of project and/or title, description of mediums, size and date. Works should be submitted on either CD (no more than 200 dpi), digital photo images of work in a bound folder, or slides in plastic sheets. Please do not submit original works. The portfolio should include approximately 5 drawings and/or paintings from direct observation of an object (not from photographs) and 5 works that investigate a specific theme or conceptual idea. This can be from any medium as long as the works suggest a consistent investigation of your idea. Please include a paragraph describing your thinking and intentions underlying this body of works. (Additional works may be requested.) All applicants should interview with a member of the Visual Art faculty either during their campus visit or over the phone. If an interview is not possible, the following questions must be answered:

1. Do you intend to pursue visual art in college and/or as a career? Considering your answer to this question, what do you expect to gain from your experience at Idyllwild Arts?
2. Where do you see yourself in ten years?
3. List your previous experience with visual arts; i.e. courses, workshops, summer programs, mediums you are interested in, etc.
4. Describe the role of the artist in today's world.

Tuition and Fees

Please see the Financial Supplement for further details regarding the tuition and fees.

Financial Aid

The Idyllwild Arts Academy is committed to supporting arts education for students from a wide variety of backgrounds. In keeping with this philosophy, the Arts Academy supports a significant program of student aid. It is the goal of the financial aid program at the Arts Academy to help families meet the financial obligations that are part of providing a quality art and academic education for their child. Our financial aid awards are need-based and given in the form of a scholarship which reduces the cost of tuition. In order to apply for financial aid, the following information must be submitted to the Admission Office by the stated application deadlines. For more information please contact the Admission and Financial Aid Office at (951) 659-2171 ext. 2344.

Additional resources about financing a private school education can be found at www.nais.org

2. Proof of monthly income
3. Documented value of property owned
4. Statement of need: one page detailed explanation of your financial contribution.

Frequently Asked Questions

Who can apply for financial aid?

Any family may apply. Determining your family's contribution toward your child's education at the Idyllwild Arts Academy is complex, and many factors are taken into consideration. Income is only one component used in the process of determining financial aid awards. If you think you will need some assistance in paying for your child's education at the Academy, do not hesitate to apply for financial aid.

When should we apply?

Since a decision on your request for financial aid cannot be made until all the required documents are received, it is important to begin the process early and complete it by the stated deadlines.

What does the financial aid award cover?

The financial aid award is applied toward tuition, room and board at the Arts Academy. The additional fees (private lessons, ESL, moving pictures fee, incidental account, refundable deposits, books, spending money) are not covered by the financial aid award.

How does the Financial Aid Committee determine if we qualify for financial aid?

The Financial Aid Committee uses three criteria to determine if a family qualifies for financial aid and the amount of that aid. The first criterion is family need, indicated by the summary sent to the Academy Admission Office by the SSS. We use this summary to determine your initial qualification. Your IRS 1040 tax form is also reviewed to obtain further information regarding your family's financial situation. (International families: Information is obtained through your bank statements, monthly income and documentation of property value.) The second criterion is the artistic ability of the student, determined by the admission audition and letters of recommendation. The third criterion is the artistic needs of the school. In an arts school, there are certain artistic requirements that must be fulfilled in order to meet the needs of the individual arts departments. These needs are taken into consideration in determining the amount of financial aid a family may be awarded.

When will we be notified of the Financial Aid Committee's decision?

Families who have completed the process will be notified by phone and by mail after the stated notification date.

Does the Financial Aid Committee consider special circumstances when making a decision?

The Committee will consider special circumstances as long as a request is made in writing and the circumstances are well documented. Requests and documentation must be on file before the Committee makes a decision.

Is the financial aid award a loan?

No. The financial aid award is not a loan and does not need to be paid back.

Is there an in-house payment plan available for the remaining balance of tuition and fees?

Yes. The Academy Business Office will help need based parents living within the country to work out details of a payment plan. If your family is seeking a payment plan, the arrangements must be worked out immediately after accepting the financial aid award.

Is the admission decision affected by our request for financial aid?

No. The Admission Committee does not know which students are applying for financial aid. Your financial aid information is kept confidential and is reviewed only by the Financial Aid Committee.

If we receive financial aid this year, will we automatically receive financial aid next year?

No. However, it is the philosophy of the Idyllwild Arts Academy to continue financial aid support for returning students who qualify. The criteria for qualification include family need and the continued academic, artistic and social growth of the student. Each year new documents must be submitted prior to the Financial Aid Committee making a determination.

Why must we submit Form 4506 to the Financial Aid Committee?

Form 4506 permits the Idyllwild Arts Academy to request tax return transcripts from the current and two previous calendar years and will be used only if the Financial Aid Committee notes a discrepancy in the information you have submitted. Please do not send a check or money with this form. Form 4506 may be found on the IRS website at www.irs.gov.
