

Annie Mallonee
Class of 2003, Dance

Annie Mallonee, from Placerville, Calif., is in her fifth season with BalletMet after dancing with the company for one year as a trainee. Prior to joining the company, she trained on scholarship with BalletMet and was a recipient of the Lucy Porter Scholarship. She has also studied on scholarship with the Sacramento Ballet, Lines Ballet, and Idyllwild Arts Academy, where she graduated and was named Outstanding Dancer in 2003. Ms. Mallonee participated in the 2004 and 2006 Columbus Choreography Projects, and has appeared as a guest artist with Opera Columbus in 2003 and with ProMusica Chamber Orchestra in 2004.