The mission of the Idyllwild Arts Foundation is to promote and advance artistic and cultural development through education in a beautiful, natural environment conducive to positive personal growth.

The Idyllwild Arts Academy provides pre-professional training in the arts and a comprehensive college-preparatory curriculum to a diverse student body of gifted young artists from all over the world.

The Idyllwild Arts Summer Program provides art instruction and experiences of the highest caliber to a diverse student population of all ages and abilities.
Idyllwild Arts is located in the San Jacinto Mountains, high above Palm Springs and the Coachella Valley. It was founded in 1946 by Max and Bee Krone as a retreat from the rigors of urban life to support the cultural development of Southern California; a place where people of different backgrounds and cultures could celebrate their arts together.

This original dream is being fulfilled by the Idyllwild Arts Foundation, which now operates two programs: 1. The Summer Program, now in its 63rd year, provides more than 120 different classes in the arts to a diverse population of students of all ages and abilities, and 2. the Arts Academy, founded in 1986, to provide the highest caliber of rigorous pre-professional arts education and a fully accredited, independent, college preparatory academic education to a culturally diverse high school student body of gifted young artists from all over the world.

Idyllwild Arts Summer Program

The tradition that began in 1950 to bring the best artists in their field to teach under the pines continues today. Writer Norman Corwin, choreographers Merce Cunningham and Bella Lewitzky, folk singer Pete Seeger, painter Francoise Gilot, Native American artist Fritz Scholder, and photographer Ansel Adams are representative of the gifted artists who taught at Idyllwild Arts and set the standard for arts education that continues in today’s Summer Program.

During a eight-week season, more than 1,700 students ages five to adult enroll in more than 120 intensive, hands-on workshops (the majority two-weeks in length), taught by professional artist-teachers, in dance, music, theatre, visual art, creative writing, filmmaking, and Native American arts.

The program for young people which includes the Children’s Center (ages 5-12), Junior Artist’s Center (ages 11-13), and Youth Arts Center (ages 13-18), offers courses designed to excite and engage young people, and accommodates a broad range of skill levels and a wide variety of arts experiences.
Each year, Idyllwild Arts provides financial aid for economically and culturally disadvantaged young people allowing them the opportunity to engage in the making and performance of art – 50% of young people participating in an arts workshop are awarded financial aid totaling over $600,000.

Programs for adults include special theme-related workshops, seminars and performances featuring renowned artists and musicians – Metals Week, Hot Clay, and Native American Arts.

Idyllwild Arts Academy

The Academy is a college preparatory boarding high school preparing talented arts students for the finest conservatories, professional companies, liberal arts colleges, and universities. Students in grades 9-12 and post-graduate are admitted on the basis of audition or portfolio evaluation, academic record, and past record as good school citizens. The Academy offers departments of creative writing, dance, interdisciplinary arts, moving pictures, music, theatre, and visual art. Students study five mornings a week in academic classes and, in the afternoons and evenings, attend arts classes, rehearsals, work in studios, or practice.

Enrollment is now at capacity, with approximately 300 students (30% from California, 20% from other states, 50% international). Nearly sixty percent of Academy students are awarded some amount of financial aid totaling over $5.5 million annually.

Each year, graduating seniors are sought by colleges, conservatories, and universities, including: American Academy of the Dramatic Arts, California Institute of the Arts, Carnegie Mellon University, Eastman School of Music, The Juilliard School, New York University – Tisch, Parson School of Design, Rhode Island School of Design, School of the Art Institute of Chicago, the University of Southern California, and more.

Alumni of Idyllwild Arts Academy include journalist Celeste Headlee '87, artist Shepard Fairey '88, Tony-nominated actress Marin Ireland '96, musician and 2012 MacArthur Fellow Claire Chase, '96, artist Nate Lowman '97, oboist Liang Wang '98, dancer Neal Beasley '00, actor Neal Bledsoe '01, poet David Shook '04, and musician Casey Abrams '09. This is a small sampling of the many talented and accomplished alumni of Idyllwild Arts Academy. Their divergent careers in the arts, business, government, healthcare, and other professional pursuits are something of which we’re extremely proud to have been a small part.
It is my honor to present the Idyllwild Arts Foundation Annual Report for 2012-2013. Having attended the Summer Program beginning as a teenager, my relationship with, and love for, Idyllwild Arts continues to grow. In addition to currently chairing the Board of Governors of the Idyllwild Arts Foundation, I am a proud parent of children who have attended both the Academy and Summer Program.

We provide this report to extend a heartfelt thanks to you, our amazing supporters, volunteers and friends, and also to present our financial report. Over 1,200 donors contributed to the success of Idyllwild Arts this past year. To each and every one of you: thank you on behalf of the students of the Summer Program and Academy.

Each year we must raise approximately three million dollars to support our 200-acre campus, its extensive exhibit and performance spaces, our dual academic and artistic faculty, and to make possible generous financial aid in both the Academy and Summer Program. We also raise funds for capital projects and for endowments, which, respectively, improve and grow our facilities, and provide for our future. The William M. Lowman Concert Hall will become a reality in the coming years. Our new health center and additions to faculty housing are under construction.

From our many donors, volunteers, outstanding faculty and staff, to our Board of Governors and Trustees; from the Associates of Idyllwild Arts, to our parents, alumni and community partners; it takes the coordinated efforts and resources of hundreds of people to make Idyllwild Arts the shining beacon for arts education that it is today. I appreciate the part you play.

Please accept my thanks for embracing our mission and supporting the Idyllwild Arts Foundation.

Sincerely,

Faith Raiguel

The 27th year of the Academy was completed with the graduation of the Class of 2013 on June 1st. 82 seniors who graduated are at this moment beginning their post-secondary journey at some of the most prestigious arts schools and universities in the country and abroad. The discipline and skills they developed at the Academy are elements that will be essential as they face the next step of education and careers in the arts. 300 students studied Creative Writing, Dance, Music, Moving Pictures, Theatre, Visual Art and InterArts last year along with our college preparatory academic program. Their work was seen in many important venues including the LA Music Center Spotlight Awards, the Palm Springs International Short Film Festival, and the Youth American Grand Prix Ballet competition.

It is our commitment to make sure that students of all socio-economic backgrounds are able to attend our school and learn from our world-class program. Those students came from 25 countries and 57% of them received financial aid, enabling them to change their lives through the education that they receive at Idyllwild Arts Academy. It is our donors who make this education possible for these students.

Your investment in their futures will be rewarded as these graduates take their place with the other Academy Alumni who’ve distinguished themselves in countless ways. Possibly even more exciting than watching their growth as students is witnessing what they eventually do with an Academy education. Whether they follow a traditional artistic career or forge a new path, the tools and community they found at Idyllwild Arts will continue to support and inspire them.

As arts communities become more global and interconnected, Idyllwild Arts Academy students’ experiences in living with and creating with artists from around the world will enhance their ability to adapt and participate in the international conversation. Increasingly we see that our alumni draw on the collaborative education that they received here, approaching their careers in entrepreneurial ways. We are committed to offering our students a global experience.

Once again it is your generous support that makes all of this possible. We couldn’t be here without you!

Head of School
For 63 consecutive summers, the Idyllwild Arts Summer Program has fulfilled its mission to “...provide arts instruction and experiences of the highest caliber to a diverse student population of all ages and abilities in a beautiful natural environment conducive to positive personal growth.” Although the Summer Program has adapted to the 21st century, we have tried to stay true to Max and Beatrice Krone's seminal thoughts about their hopes for the program:

“According to our way of thinking, the arts provide the best common ground for friendly cooperation among the peoples of the world.
In our arts we express the same hopes and fears, our joys and sorrows, our longings and aspirations, our daily experiences, all of those things that mean the most to us. The arts provide a common language we can all understand no matter in what tongue the words may be expressed.”

The most significant work of the Summer Program takes place in more than 120 intensive programs and workshops for students of all ages and abilities in the fields of dance, film, music, theatre, visual arts, writing, and Native American arts. For eight weeks, the campus buzzes with the intensive activity generated by hundreds of students energetically pursuing their passion in the arts. Perhaps even more important is the fact that, over the past five summers, we have been able to assist more than 2,000 young people participate in life changing arts experiences by means of financial aid and scholarships.

We are fortunate to have the most wonderful faculty of artist-teachers imaginable, and a support staff, both full-time and seasonal, of hard-working, dedicated idealists who provide untold hours of creativity, energy, and love for arts education.

We are also supremely grateful for the continuing attendance and support from the approximately 1,700 students who participate in the program each summer.

Finally, I would like to extend my heartfelt thanks to the thousands of donors and friends who continue to support Idyllwild Arts. We absolutely, positively could not do this without you.

Mission Statement of The Associates

To act as a nonprofit association to support education in the arts; specifically the programs offered by the Idyllwild Arts Academy and Summer Program. We also provide cultural activities for the local community.

Overview

In the fall of 2012 the Associates voted to change their fiscal year to end June 30th. This resulted in a one-time, short fiscal year: Oct. 1, 2012 through June 30, 2013. The Associates’ goals this year, in addition to lending all the support we can to IAF, have been to increase memberships, participate with other Idyllwild non profit organizations’ events, and prepare for our 20th Anniversary Jazz in the Pines Festival.

Activities and Fundraisers

Holiday Party - Our Holiday Party was held in mid-December at the Living Room Gallery in the heart of Idyllwild. We placed a special emphasis on encouraging all the newest members to attend. Despite a very cold evening it was a great success. Food was donated by the membership and our great supporter, Café Aroma.

Bid ‘n Buy Auction and Dinner was held January 19th at the Rainbow Inn on Strawberry Creek. A special emphasis was placed on Associates bringing friends and neighbors. Our attendance was well above last year’s, including potential new members. Proceeds from this event were donated to the school’s scholarship fund.

Barnaby Finch & Friends concert was held on campus in March, and was well attended. The evening was delightful and we are grateful for all the musicians who donate their talents, including IAA violin student Sam Zorn. The concert was preceded with a dinner, available for a separate ticket price. The proceeds from this concert were donated to the Idyllwild Arts Academy scholarship fund.
Our Membership Chairwoman, Diana Kurr set up an Associates’ information table in the Bowman Hall lobby for several performances. Membership brochures, mints, and cookies were available, and she and her husband answered inquiries about The Associates.

The Idyllwild Lemon Lily and Bluegrass Festival was held in June. The Associates volunteered to run the Beer truck. In 2012 this event was a good fundraiser and positive event for us; this year was not as successful.

Idyllwild Jazz in the Pines Festival prep filled out the beginning of summer.

DONATIONS TO IAF October 1, 2012 – June 30, 2013: $27,000.00*

(*Sept.30,2012 $38,500. was donated to IAF which included Jazz proceeds)
