The Future will not care how long it took you to create, nor what it cost, only is it beautiful or great.

- Max Krone
The mission of the Idyllwild Arts Foundation is to promote and advance artistic and cultural development through education in a beautiful, natural environment conducive to positive personal growth.

The Idyllwild Arts Academy provides pre-professional training in the arts and a comprehensive college-preparatory curriculum to a diverse student body of gifted young artists from all over the world.

The Idyllwild Arts Summer Program provides art instruction and experiences of the highest caliber to a diverse student population of all ages and abilities.
We believe that the arts are integral to the human experience.

Idyllwild Arts is located in the San Jacinto Mountains, high above Palm Springs and the Coachella Valley. It was founded in 1946 by Max and Bee Krone as a retreat from the rigors of urban life to support the cultural development of Southern California; a place where people of different backgrounds and cultures could celebrate their arts together.

This original dream is being fulfilled by the Idyllwild Arts Foundation, which now operates two programs: 1. The Summer Program, now in its 65th year, provides more than 120 different classes in the arts to a diverse population of students of all ages and abilities, and 2. The Arts Academy, founded in 1986, to provide the highest caliber of rigorous pre-professional arts education and a fully accredited, independent, college preparatory academic education to a culturally diverse high school student body of gifted young artists from all over the world.

Idyllwild Arts Summer Program

The tradition that began in 1950 to bring the best artists in their field to teach under the pines continues today. Writer Norman Corwin, choreographers Merce Cunningham and Bella Lewitzky, folk singer Pete Seeger, painter Francoise Gilot, Native American artist Fritz Scholder, and photographer Ansel Adams are representative of the gifted artists who taught at Idyllwild Arts and set the standard for arts education that continues in today’s Summer Program.

During a eight-week season, more than 1,700 students ages five to adult enroll in more than 120 intensive, hands-on workshops (the majority two-weeks in length), taught by professional artist-teachers, in dance, music, theatre, visual art, creative writing, filmmaking, and Native American arts.

The program for young people which includes the Children’s Center (ages 5-12), Junior Artist’s Center (ages 11-13), and Youth Arts Center (ages 13-18), offers courses designed to excite and engage young people, and accommodates a broad range of skill levels and a wide variety of arts experiences.
Each year, Idyllwild Arts provides financial aid for economically and culturally disadvantaged young people allowing them the opportunity to engage in the making and performance of art – 50% of young people participating in an arts workshop are awarded financial aid totaling over $600,000.

Programs for adults include special theme-related workshops, seminars and performances featuring renowned artists and musicians – Metals Week, Hot Clay, and Native American Arts.

Idyllwild Arts Academy

The Academy is a college preparatory boarding high school preparing talented arts students for the finest conservatories, professional companies, liberal arts colleges, and universities. Students in grades 9-12 and post-graduate are admitted on the basis of audition or portfolio evaluation, academic record, and past record as good school citizens. The Academy offers departments of creative writing, dance, interdisciplinary arts, moving pictures, music, theatre, and visual art. Students study five mornings a week in academic classes and, in the afternoons and evenings, attend arts classes, rehearsals, work in studios, or practice.

Enrollment is now at capacity, with approximately 300 students (30% from California, 20% from other states, 50% international). Nearly sixty percent of Academy students are awarded some amount of financial aid totaling over $5.5 million annually.

Each year, graduating seniors are sought by colleges, conservatories, and universities, including: American Academy of the Dramatic Arts, California Institute of the Arts, Carnegie Mellon University, Eastman School of Music, The Juilliard School, New York University – Tisch, Parson School of Design, Rhode Island School of Design, School of the Art Institute of Chicago, the University of Southern California, and more.

Alumni of Idyllwild Arts Academy include journalist Celeste Headlee ‘87, artist Shepard Fairey ‘88, Tony-nominated actress Marin Ireland ‘96, musician and 2012 MacArthur Fellow Claire Chase, ‘96, artist Nate Lowman ‘97, oboist Liang Wang ‘98, dancer Neal Beasley ‘00, actor Neal Bledsoe ‘01, poet David Shook ‘04, and musician Casey Abrams ‘09. This is a small sampling of the many talented and accomplished alumni of Idyllwild Arts Academy. Their divergent careers in the arts, business, government, healthcare, and other professional pursuits are something of which we’re extremely proud to have been a small part.
Since arriving at Idyllwild Arts Foundation in July, I have spent a great deal of time learning our history, the vision of our founders, and the mission that Idyllwild Arts embraced nearly 70 years ago. Our founders believed that art is a unifying language, drawing people of different cultures and backgrounds together. Our founders believed that we could make the world a better place if we understood each other’s hopes, dreams, challenges and aspirations. Music and art was the language we would employ.

We have come a long way since 1946, and in 2013-2014, Idyllwild Arts provided its unique experience:
- to people young and old,
- to people from over thirty countries,
- to people in more than one hundred summer classes,
- alongside seven pre-professional artistic programs,
- and paralleled with an uncompromising academic program for high-school aged students.

2016 will mark seventy years of excellence at Idyllwild Arts Foundation. Such an occasion provides an ideal opportunity to develop a revised strategic plan that creates a shared vision for the institution and ensures IAF’s viability and success in the years ahead. Building upon its legacy of artistic and academic excellence, Idyllwild Arts continues its commitment toward sustainability, leadership in arts education, and providing a foundation for talented and creative young people to live meaningful and fulfilling lives.

It is with sincere gratitude that we thank the entire Idyllwild Arts community for supporting our apprentices, young and old. We know that there are many outstanding cultural, artistic, and educational institutions worthy of your support. We thank you for choosing Idyllwild Arts Foundation as important and integral to current and future generations.

Warmest regards,

Pamela Jordan
President, Idyllwild Arts Foundation
I am honored to present the Idyllwild Arts Foundation Annual Report for 2013-2014. As the new Board Chair, it is my privilege to say a few words about this remarkable year. However, many accomplishments took place under the able leadership of our immediate past Board Chair, Faith Raiguel. I would like to thank Faith for her years of leadership and her continued support and guidance.

Magic. It is a term I hear often when talking with students, parents and employees about what takes place in the Academy and Summer Program at Idyllwild Arts. There is something magical that happens “on the hill”. For some, the magic is personal growth from creating something special under the guidance of our faculty. For others, the magic comes from witnessing a performance or viewing amazing works in our extraordinary setting in the San Jacinto Mountains. This “magic” would not be possible without the support we receive from our donors, volunteers and friends. In addition to presenting our financial results, this report is provided to extend our thanks to each of you.

The 2013 Summer Program was unforgettable due to the evacuation of our campus and the Idyllwild community for several days due to the Mountain Fire. Under the leadership of Steve Fraider and his team, our campus evacuation plans were implemented seamlessly. It was extraordinary to witness the power of art in the lives of our young students. Displaced from our campus, they continued to create art together using whatever tools or instruments they could find.

In December 2013 we completed our campaign for the William M. Lowman Concert Hall. The hall will be the centerpiece of a new campus hub and will provide a performance venue with extraordinary acoustics.

I thank the members of our capital campaign committee, development staff, and our co-chairs Buzz Holmes and Jim Lovelace. With hard work and the extraordinary generosity of our board, employees, alumni, the Associates of Idyllwild Arts and many others, we were able to raise more than $6 million to build a concert hall that will serve generations of future artists.

Also in December, we concluded a year-long search for a new President. We were fortunate to have a dedicated group of board members, faculty and management who worked tirelessly through a thorough process, reviewing many qualified candidates from all over the world. Pamela Jordan has spent her career with arts education and serves on regional and national independent school boards.
She was with the Chicago Academy of the Arts for over 20 years, where she was most recently serving as their President. We look forward to working with her as we focus on the future of Idyllwild Arts Foundation.

In the spring, we graduated the largest ever senior class from the Academy, with over 100 talented graduates. They will attend some of the finest colleges and universities in the world. The Academy program has been operating at or near full capacity for several years. It continues its tradition of developing future leaders by offering extraordinary training in academics and the arts.

We are proud of our accomplishments and are enthusiastic about the future. Thank you for your continued support.

Sincerely,

Jeff Dvorak

Idyllwild Arts Academy sent its 28th graduating class out into the world on May 24th. These students celebrated the culmination of an education they received here, growing up in a supportive community that feels like a family. Academy students represented 24 countries last year and studied Dance, Creative Writing, Music, Moving Pictures, Visual Art, Theatre, and InterArts. This combination of interests along with the cultural variety makes for a diverse, global community.

We believe that students of all socio-economic levels who deserve admittance to Idyllwild Arts Academy should be able to attend. In fact, we need them to attend in order to provide the diverse experience our student body enjoys. 60% of our students in the 13-14 received financial aid. Our donors make that possible, as well as providing operational support for our 200 acre campus, and providing opportunities for enrichment through masterclasses, field trips, and guest artists.

The class of 2014 now takes its place with the other Academy alumni who’ve distinguished themselves in countless ways. Even more exciting than watching their growth as students, is witnessing what they eventually do with an Academy education. Whether they follow a traditional artistic career or forge a new path, the resources and community they enjoyed at Idyllwild Arts will continue to support and inspire them.

As the 14-15 school year begins, we celebrate the groundbreaking of the William M. Lowman Concert Hall. This beautiful facility will inspire everyone who enters it, but especially the students that play on its stage. Thanks to the energy and generosity of our wonderful supporters and friends, this dream is becoming a reality for us all.

Thank you,

Dr. Douglas Ashcraft
Head of School
For 65 consecutive summers, the Idyllwild Arts Summer Program has fulfilled its mission to “...provide arts instruction and experiences of the highest caliber to a diverse student population of all ages and abilities in a beautiful natural environment conducive to positive personal growth.” Although the Summer Program continues to evolve throughout the first decades of the 21st century, we have tried to stay true to Max and Beatrice Krone’s seminal thoughts about their hopes for the program:

“According to our way of thinking, the arts provide the best common ground for friendly cooperation among the peoples of the world. In our arts we express the same hopes and fears, our joys and sorrows, our longings and aspirations, our daily experiences, all of those things that mean the most to us. The arts provide a common language we can all understand no matter in what tongue the words may be expressed.”

The most significant work of the Summer Program takes place in more than 120 intensive programs and workshops for students of all ages and abilities in the fields of dance, film, music, theatre, visual arts, writing and Native American arts. For eight weeks, the campus buzzes with the intense activity generated by hundreds of students energetically pursuing their passion in the arts. Over the past six summers, we have been able to help more than 2,500 young people experience life-changing arts experiences by means of financial aid and scholarships.

We are fortunate to have the most wonderful faculty of artist-teachers imaginable, and a support staff, both full-time and seasonal, of hard-working, dedicated idealists who provide untold hours of creativity, energy and love for transformative arts education.

We are also supremely grateful for the continuing attendance and support from the approximately 1,700 students who participate in the program each summer.

Finally, I would like to extend my heartfelt thanks to the thousands of donors and friends who continue to support Idyllwild Arts. We absolutely, positively could not do this without you.

Sincerely,

Steve Fraider
Director of the Summer Program
Mission Statement of The Associates
To act as a nonprofit association to support education in the arts; specifically the programs offered by the Idyllwild Arts Academy and Summer Program. We also provide cultural activities for the local community.

Overview

The Associates have been working to fulfill their mission this year in several areas: offering our volunteer abilities both to Idyllwild Arts – for events and projects, and to the Idyllwild community. In the fall of 2013 the Associates were very proud to make a donation to the Capital campaign, for the Lowman Concert Hall, that qualified for matching funds.

We continue to increase our membership and are delighted to count more faculty, staff and parents each year. We particularly want to communicate to Parents of IA students that The Associates organization is an additional avenue of involvement in the school. Our membership in the Fall 2014 has grown to approximately 300 members that includes Individuals, Families, Parents and Businesses. Our membership Chair Diana Kurr is a force of nature!

Activities & Fundraisers

Faculty & Staff Appreciation Cocktail Party – The Associates opportunity to thank Faculty and Staff for all they do, and our chance to meet more members of the IA community. We had a very successful party at the Grand Idyllwild Lodge with around 80 guests.

Holiday Party – Held at the beautiful Creekstone Inn - Socializing & Introducing potential new members to the Associates.

Barnaby Finch and Friends Brunch Fundraiser – Staged at Stephens Hall with a pre-event brunch deliciously created by Chris Stroud and the Nelson Hall Dining Service staff.

Squirrelly Auction Fundraiser – Held at the Rainbow Inn, and produced by Karen Metz, our Endowment Committee Chair, with Vicki Streeter and Erin O’Neil. It was a fun evening of silent and live auctions with a tremendous variety of art and unique collectible items. Our auctioneer for the third year was Associate Janice Lyle.
Musicale Fundraiser – The grand opening of the Ponderosa Dome concert hall – hosted by Musicale Headliners: Jane and Daniel Levy, (long time Associates, Board Members and, Summer Program Faculty – Jane) performing with David Speltz, Connie Kupka and Ryan Zwalen, former Chair of the Music Department.

Annual Meeting & Election of Officers – We welcomed Pam Jordan & her husband, Chris Scott, days before she formally took the reins as President. We announced that the all time giving of The Associates has exceeded $2 million dollars.

The 21st Jazz in the Pines Festival – What a great success! We were able to make inroads in showcasing alumni of Idyllwild Arts while providing 3 stages for 2 days of world class Jazz and Blues talent. 60 Artisans booths offered handmade, unique works for sale, including many artists who are Idyllwild residents and members of the Associates. The Members of the Jazz Committee volunteered their skills, time, and focus for many months to produce a smooth running event with exceptional talent, and a unique atmosphere on the campus of Idyllwild Arts August 15-17, 2014.

Sincerely,

Anne Erikson, President

Recognizing our Donors

Our Annual Report provides a special opportunity to recognize you, the members of the Idyllwild Arts family, for your generous support. Our sincere thanks go to the individuals, foundations and corporations listed on the following pages. While the greatest recognition of your support lies in the accomplishments of our students, what follows is a sincere effort to honor all of you who have done so much to enrich the Academy and the Summer Program. We have made every effort to be as accurate as possible in this report. If an error comes to your attention, please let the Advancement office know right away by calling 951-659-2171 x. 2330.
