Hot Clay Week III – Pottery & Food

Dear HOT CLAY Participant,

We have planned a stimulating week for you with a full-immersion schedule of art making, lectures, and events.

Please note the following schedule details:

- Orientation meeting for all adult students and faculty at 8:30 am on Monday at the Krone Library Patio
- This program begins Sunday at 3pm with a class reception/presentation/food tasting, and concludes on Saturday at 2pm after class lunch prepared by Chef Bitsoie.
- Workshops run Monday-Friday from 9:00am to 4:00pm, with evenings open for studio time, lectures and events. On Saturday, final kilns will be unloaded by noon.
- Gallery Opening and Reception takes place on Monday evening at 8:00 pm in Parks Exhibition Center, featuring work by Hot Clay and all Adult Arts Center faculty.
- Other lectures, demos and events are planned during the week, including presentations by our visual art, Native American festival and music faculty.

Be sure to carefully review the tools and supplies list for your workshop and to bring all required items. Clay, glazes and shared materials will be provided.

If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Diane Dennis, summer registrar, at summer@idyllwildarts.org or 951-659-2171, ext. 2365.

We are excited about Hot Clay 2018 and look forward to welcoming you to campus.

Sincerely,

Richard Burkett, Hot Clay Coordinator
Heather Companiott, Director, Adult Arts Center
